Dear Sirs, Madams,

I write to you today in good faith and with the hope you will not turn a blind eye to what can only be seen as a deeply distressing and blasphemous decision by a church, now currently at the centre of a scandal which has shaken many members of the public to their core.

In 1983 Christ Church, Hampstead, opened it's doors and allowed a musical group to perform there. The name of the group is Psychic TV. Now of course I have no qualms with a church welcoming musicians and artists into their sphere. However it is the bands history which is completely at odds with this decision on the part of the church. Locations included The Hell Fire Club caves 300ft. underground, Christ Church in Hampstead, and Caxton Hall. I am not sure if you are aware of the associations between Caxton Hall and Aleister Crowley...

The music recorded there featured a choir boy singing the lyrics of Charles Manson "always is always", a perverse allusion to death perhaps?

"The telephone line interference gives way to the glorious clarity of a solo choirboy singing 'Always is Always', a song penned by the murderer of psychedelic innocence: Charles Manson, and much sung by his adopted family of waifs and strays."

I have included the following review from one of the groups followers reviews of their 1982 release "First Transmission", which was released one year before Christ Church allowed the band to perform there.

"First Transmission" is a deeply unsettling compilation video that features several films made by The Temple ov Psychick Youth.It's about 6 hours long,it has the 'satanic abuse and murder' on it,a bunch of interviews,some ritual pornography,footage of People's Temple leader Jim Jones,Psychic TV on BBC2,and truly sick quasi-snuff film called "Castration Movie"."Psychic TV Vol.1" for example contains "The Ritual ov Psychick Youth" which documents a brutal and sadistic TOPY initiation ritual.We see a bound man whipped,drugged,ritualistically mutilated with a knife and smeared with his own blood.Then he is given a blood enema.This forty minutes long video is truly disturbing as it's obviously real with no special effects involved.Its sheer power to shock and disturb resulted in labelling Genesis P.Orridge as a Satanist.On the other hand,"Psychic TV Vol.2" features incredibly upsetting 'snuff' video "Castration Movie".A disclaimer in which claims that the following footage is being investigated by the FBI for acts of actual violence and mutilation,as well as the exploitation of children.The video then begins and you can kind of tell it was made in the mid maybe late 70's by the clothing and cars.It is grainy mostly looking like it was shot on a home camera of some sort.

Lucifer (ID: BkMvPI80)  09/16/17(Sat)14:38:39 No.141773309▶

Two men are apparently making the video,one a doctor of some sort and a cameraman whom we never see."Castration Movie" documents the two men setting up shop in a local motel and eventually persuading young boys to come to the motel room where they have some sort of miniature steel rod inserted in their arms.This rod apparently acts like a conductor of some sort to which they can then apply live wires to,to achieve some sort of electrical induced orgasm.The video then cuts for about 20 minutes of clipped footage of these boys using the new implants in different locations.Finally one of them in the motel room uses it too much and dies.The doctor freaks out,starts waving his hands around for the camera to cut which it does.The next scene is the doctor driving and the cameraman filming the road,and they apparently are splitting town crossing the Mexican border.Finally it shows them setting up shop in a Mexican hotel then it cuts to graphic scene of a young boy surgically castrated.Personally I don't know what to think about this extremely disturbing video.It appears to be real,but I strongly believe that some parts of it are cleverly simulated.On "Psychic TV Vol.2" there is also a propaganda documentary "Disaptches" about the rise of Satanism in UK.It claims that Psychic TV's "First Transmission" tape was a Satanic ritual and TOPY was responsible for murdering children."

Could someone from the Ecclasteical committee or indeed the church of England please tell me why Christ Church, Hampstead (which is now at the centre of allegations involving sadism, murder and paedophilia) allowed this group to perform on their premises? I must confess I am incredibly distressed to come across these facts, after many hours of research. It is certainly not commonly known knowledge.

I am sure, as men and women of God, you will be as outraged as me and understand such sinister happenings give more than credence to the children's allegations regarding insidious and wicked activities going on in this church.

Yours in faith,

Jane Webb

Dear Ms Webb

I am writing in reply to your e-mail of 9 July to the Ecclesiastical Committee.

The appointment of the Committee's membership in the new Parliament has not yet been completed, and the Committee has not yet met in the current Parliament.

Even when the membership is completed, under the Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act 1919 the Committee has very limited terms of reference, which are to consider each measure (proposal for legislation) submitted to Parliament by the Church's General Synod, and to report to Parliament "stating the nature and legal effect of the measure and its views as to the expediency thereof". I regret that the Committee would therefore be unable to assist in this matter.

I see that you have cc'd your e-mail to the Church of England and I hope that they will be able to assist you. In addition, I understand that the general e-mail contact for the Archbishop of Canterbury at Lambeth Palace is contact@lambethpalace.org.uk.

You may also be aware of the recently established Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse led by Hon. Lowell Goddard. The inquiry's website is here: <https://www.csa-inquiry.independent>

Yours sincerely

Jake Vaughan House of Lords Secretary to the Ecclesiastical Committee

From: Jane Webb [mailto:jane webb33@aol.co.uk] Sent: 14 July 2015 11:38 To: Correspondence Cc: jeremy@jeremywright.org.uk; jeremy@jeremywright.org.uk Subject: URGENT: Child Abuse

Dear Rt Hon Jeremy Wright QC MP,

I hope this email finds you well.

I write to you directly today in good faith and also because time is truly of the essence in this case, which threatens to send two young children back to their allegedly abusive father on the 23rd of July unless action is taken quickly.

I have been recommended to contact you via my communications with members of The House Of Lords, whom share my horror and astoundment at the attitude of The JCIO with whom I launched complaint, I quote one member: "It is astounding that this JCIO did not uphold your complaint, apparently on the basis that judges are free to say whatever they like."

Below I have included my complaint to the JCIO, I have further attached this as a PDF as well as the response from the JCIO, which is highly alarming.

Thank you very much for your time.

Best wishes,

Jane Webb

Dear Judicial Conduct Investigations Office,

As you are most likely aware, there is a huge public backlash currently underway regarding comments made by one Justice Pauffley of the family courts division, regarding special allowances being made for immigrants when it comes to issues of child abuse (as considered under English Law.)

Phillip Hollobone MP on Pauffley: "I really do wonder sometimes whether judges in our senior courts have adequate training for some of the cases that come before them."

Alan Wood, a former president of the Association of Directors of Children's Services, 'It seems a very unusual comment by the judge and I'd be surprised if the matter isn't looked into at the Ministry of Justice.'

Lucifer (ID: BkMvPI80) 09/16/17(Sat)15:32:38 No.141778695

“A press spokesman for the Judicial Communications Office said it was not yet looking into the matter but would do if it received formal complaints.” Source: <http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/ukn>

I wish to bring your attention to this publicly released court document, in which Justice Pauffley states bestiality and incest are "normal childhood behaviours". <https://www.judiciary.gov.uk/wp-con>

In order to contest this point, I wish to bring your attention to paragraph 100 from the judgement:

As for the very first indication of sexual abuse. Mr Christie's account to Mr Yahaouri is both extraordinary and significant. To entertain suspicions about Mr Dearman from the tone of his voice over a Skype call defies reason. Moreover senseless assumptions would seem to have been made by Mr Christie and the mother if, in fact, the children had touched the dog and were "touching each other." To believe that children who demonstrate curiosity about and touch their own, the dog's and their siblings genital areas must have, or probably have, been sexually abused is plainly ridiculous. It shows alarming ignorance about normal childhood behaviours or, as is likely here, wilful determination to distort innocent activities into something sinister and depraved.

I wish to further bring to your attention the following pieces of academic and governmental literature highlighting the grave mistake in Justice Pauffley's assumptions.

Sibling Sexual Abuse — Uncovering the Secret By Margaret Ballantine, PhD, MSW, LCSW-R, and Lynne Soine, DSW, MSW, LMSW Sibling sexual abuse has been dismissed as “child's play” in many cases and/or as a normal aspect of sexual development. More recent research has documented the traumatic, long-lasting, and damaging effects of sibling incest (Carlson, Maciol, & Schneider, 2006; Weihe, 1997). <http://www.socialworktoday.com/arch>

National Criminal Justice Reference Service One form of cruelty to animals that has received scant attention in the literature is the sexual abuse of animals, or bestiality. Bestiality may range from touching or fondling the genitals of animals to sexual intercourse and violent sexual abuse. <https://www.ncjrs.gov/html/ojjdp/jj>

Further research on this matter serves to highlight naivety on the part of Justice Pauffley or wilful determination to normalise to the abnormal. Which academics in the fields of psychology and social work as well as international governmental bodies, would abhor.

I do hope you will not take lightly the grave seriousness of this matter, regarding children whom a respected and inured paediatrician has confirmed were sexually abused and suffering from post traumatic stress disorder.

Curiously, the father mentioned in the above court document who has received non-molestation orders for violence against the children's mother (which occurred in front of the children) was given increased access to the children. The father's violent history was not once mentioned by Justice Pauffley. I am compelled to ask why?

>>141794193

Dr Hodes, who's report on Baby P was scandalously not disclosed (please see media <http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/england/>

The experienced and respected paediatrician Dr Hodes is quoted as saying: "Despite the confusing picture we must take the children's allegations very seriously"

She further confirmed the children's scarring was related to sexual abuse and pointed to the high incidence in which children's retractions were falsified, whether under duress or through what can only be deemed to be the result of a psychological trauma bond to their abuser - especially in instances where the abuser is a family friend or family member.

Furthermore, both children's detailed descriptions of distinguishing marks on intimate areas of their alleged abusers bodies, were never investigated nor considered by Justice Pauffley in court. One would think accusations of such gravity would merit escalation to a criminal court, wherein they might be thoroughly proven or disproven in the presence of a public jury.

I do hope you will have the opportunity to examine this situation more deeply, as I feel a great injustice has committed, to both the Mother in this case and her two children.

Thank you for your time in reading about this most pertinent issue, in light of the current media backlash.

Yours faithfully,

Jane Webb

Thank you for your timely response and your consideration.

Please find attached the JCIO response, my original email as well as my amended email which quotes governmental and academic literature.

Thank you again.

Dear Ms Webb

Thank you for letting me see the full correspondence. It is astounding that this JCIO did not uphold your complaint, apparently on the basis that judges are free to say whatever they like.

There is no point going to the Adjudicator in my view as he cannot rule on the admissibility of the original complaint. The only route you could try is either the Attorney General or the Lord Chancellor, Michael Gove. You would need to go to your local MP to see if s/he will put in a complaint to the elected politicians on your behalf.

I am sorry I cannot be more helpful.

Kind regards,

Dear Sir,

Thank you for your exceptional article regarding one Justice Pauffley of the High Court.

I wish to bring your attention to this publicly released court document, in which she states bestiality is a "normal childhood behaviour", this goes beyond jumping the shark and is utterly perverse. <https://www.judiciary.gov.uk/wp-con>

This whole situation has been nothing more than a complete whitewash, containing levels of police "negligence" which is both heartbreaking and astounding.

The situation is outlined quite clearly on this newly constructed forum:
<http://grandjury.freeforums.net/>

Curiously, the father who has received more than one non-molestation order for violence against the children's mother was given increased access to the children. The father's violent history was not once mentioned by "Justice" Pauffley. It truly boggles the mind... Dr Hodes, who's report on Baby P was manipulated (please see media articles) confirmed that the children had been sexually abused, a fact which was mocked by "Justice" Pauffley as causing her "bemusement".

"Despite the confusing picture we must take the children's allegations very seriously" Dr. Hodes

I do hope you will have the opportunity to examine this situation more deeply, now that you are aware of the insanity behind this bewildering woman.

With kind regards,

In a previous thread you (or someone else) posted a link that was a contract for a movie called Heaven is Real. Was that actually because of the painting called Prince of Peace was recognized by the boy from the movie?
I have more questions too I don't want to make the post to long.

Julius Caesar was of A- Blood

Cleopatra was of B- Blood

Caesarion was of AB-, the first of it's kind, perhaps.

Now we know Caesarion, by Plutarch's estimations, was known as the quite provocative title King of Kings.

As well as this, we find he also was known as "Chosen by Ptah"

Ptah being the God of Architects and Craftsmen.

It is a delightful thing, we should also find, Tekton as having been mistranslated as carpenter, when all along, it meant architect.

And from this what do we learn?

Always be sure to show kindness to strangers, for men, having done so... Have entertained angels, no less.

Dear Ms Webb

Thank you for letting me see the full correspondence. It is astounding that this JCIO did not uphold your complaint, apparently on the basis that judges are free to say whatever they like.

There is no point going to the Adjudicator in my view as he cannot rule on the admissibility of the original complaint. The only route you could try is either the Attorney General or the Lord Chancellor, Michael Gove. You would need to go to your local MP to see if s/he will put in a complaint to the elected politicians on your behalf.

I am sorry I cannot be more helpful.

Thank you for answering my questions. There are so many lies everywhere that it seems impossible to find the truth which I seem to think is singular and knowable, and I am sure I still have many lies put into my head. It is hard to know what is real and what is imaginary sometimes but it will work out in the end I think. If to sin means to miss the mark then I am constantly missing the mark and will just have to try not to focus so obsessively on the missed strikes.

My brain is on fire again and every molecule is singing (screaming?) so I will be leaving now but will make sure to check the archive and read through the rest of the thread later.

It was very nice talking to you and hopefully we can again soon. Bye
